National Sweater Day

Grannie Gagetown stopped in to visit our school on Thursday, February 7th. Grannie helped us celebrate National Sweater Day and led the sweater parade around the library. National Sweater Day encourages everyone to turn down the heat by a couple of degrees and put on a sweater.

Since the vast majority of the students were wearing a sweater, everyone got a free ice cream on Friday, donated by our Home & School.

Kissograms

As a Middle School Fundraiser, parents can purchase a "Kissogram" for their child to be delivered to their classroom on Valentine's Day! For $1.00 our Middle School Cupids will deliver your message with a small package of Hershey's chocolate kisses! Write your message in the heart and return it to the school with your $1.00 by Tuesday February 12th.

Ball Hockey

Grade 3-5 students practicing for Ball Hockey. Students will be participating in a Ball Hockey Tournament against Cambridge Narrows Community School on Thursday, February 28th during winter carnival.
